

would make it impossible for I.C.K. to continue, they decided also to propose a cancellation of the Contract of Helsinki. These proposals were duly made at the K.R. Meeting on August 4th, and were accepted by the following figures :—

For the complete proposal, 5,401.

For more detailed discussion, 1,342.

Abstentions, 816.

A committee of seven was then elected to draft statutes based on the principles laid down. These principles were given in The B.E. for last September. No objections were raised to them by any Group or Member of the B.E.A. When it was decided to form this committee, I proposed that U.E.A. be given two seats on the committee, but unfortunately that body refused to accept them.

The committee met during the three days following the congress, and the question of the position of U.E.A. was one of the first things with which it had to deal. It was obviously desirable to include the U.E.A. if at all possible. All the members of the committee, however, agreed that they could not use the name U.E.A. for the new organisation, because if the present U.E.A. decided not to accept the proposals it would say—and rightly—that the new body was taking its name without its consent. It should be borne in mind that all members of the committee were U.E.A. Cef-delegitoj, Delegitoj, or members. The title U.F.E., to which some of our U.E.A. friends in England have taken exception, was proposed by Mr. Schoofs, chief U.E.A. Delegate for Belgium. Finally, the provisional statutes were drafted.

The committee all along hoped that it would be possible to bring in U.E.A., and immediately after my return to England I visited Sheffield in order to see Mr. Merchant and to ascertain whether he would agree to the following suggestions made to this end : (1) That the title of the new organisation be U.E.A. ; (2) That the U.E.A. office be the office of the new organisation ; and (3) That we should endeavour to secure the election of the President of U.E.A. as the first President of the new organisation. It was necessary to obtain Mr. Merchant's consent, because this last item would mean his resignation in favour of Mr. Stettler. Mr. Merchant agreed to this, and in September I asked Mr. Blaise to put these suggestions to U.E.A., in order to see whether they would agree. It had previously been decided that the proposals should be made in this way, so that the U.E.A. would not be able to feel that the committee was attempting to use its name without its consent. These proposals were duly sent forward by Mr. Blaise to U.E.A., but so far as I know no acknowledgment of them was ever received. This information ought to do away with any false impression that the formation of the new organisation was an attempt to kill U.E.A. On the contrary, our hope all along has been, and still is, that U.E.A. would take its position as the centre of the organisation.

No reply having been received from U.E.A., the provisional statutes were duly circulated, and were accepted by the B.E.A. Council at its meeting on October 22nd last. Prior to the meeting the complete statutes had been sent out to all Councillors and Delegate Councillors, and again no protest whatsoever was received. Consequently, as from January 1st, the B.E.A. has been a member of U.F.E. Other societies which have already joined U.F.E. are Denmark, France, Spain, Italy, Sweden, Catalonia, Saar, Brazil, Japan, and Lithuania ; that is, eleven societies in all. Other national societies have deferred the decision until their annual meetings, and it is believed that several more will join shortly. So far, no national society has definitely refused to come in.

It should be pointed out that the B.E.A. has all along worked for peace, and has done its best to promote a fusion of U.E.A. and U.F.E. Accordingly, when Mr. Jakob was here in January, I asked him to come to the office and discuss the matter with Mr. Robertson, Mr. Butler, and myself. He did so, and as a result the plan outlined in the February B.E. was agreed upon as a suitable basis for discussion. It was quite understood that these were only proposals, but Mr. Jakob said that he would bring them before his Committee with his personal approval, and would let us have a reply in a fortnight. His subsequent complete repudiation of them was an absolute bombshell, and nullified this effort to secure a peaceful and friendly arrangement.

According to the January issue of Esperanto, U.E.A. had decided not to join U.F.E. Its own proposal did not appear till the end of February in the following issue. It may be summed up as follows : that National and other societies should join U.E.A. as affiliated bodies on payment of 10/- per annum, and nominate a member kiel administra reprezentanto ĉe U.E.A. (whatever this may mean), and also a councillor, who would have a seat in the Grand Council which would meet at the annual congresses. This U.E.A. proposal does not in any way touch upon the real points at issue, i.e., the competition between U.E.A. and the National Societies, and the possibility of one subscription to cover membership of both national and international bodies.

Any proposal to be acceptable to Land and other Societies, and we believe, to the general body of Esperantists, must include the following four points : (1) That the governing body should include representatives of all societies coming into the scheme ; (2) That members of societies accepting the scheme should become members of the international organisation without further payment ; (3) That if individual members of the international organisation are permitted, the subscription they pay should not be less than the subscription paid by members through the National Society—this to prevent undesirable competition ; (4) That the delegates should be subject to the approval of the National Society in the area in which they live.

The U.E.A. proposal deals only with the first of these points. If U.E.A. refuses to accept the other three points, this cuts away the possibility of agreement. The B.E.A. is a member of U.F.E., and this body is now actually functioning. Of course, many amendments in the draft statutes are necessary, and these will be made, but even now U.F.E. is a body which enables land and other societies to give to their members the same rights and privileges as are given by U.E.A. to its members.

Finally, it should be pointed out that while the B.E.A. itself cannot now do anything further, as the matter is now one between U.F.E. and U.E.A., it is asking U.F.E. to call a meeting of all societies interested, to be held in Geneva in May. At this meeting amendments to the provisional statutes will be discussed, and an agreed scheme prepared for submission to the congress in Cologne. If U.E.A. consents to participate in this there is no reason why a harmonious settlement should not be reached. We hope that this may be so, and the present troubles be speedily forgotten in united work for the common goal.

To the end of February we have received 655 enquiries in connection with our advertising campaign. This may be considered a reasonably satisfactory start, but we want thousands where we have had hundreds. These can be obtained if we can continue the work so effectively started. The more often our advertisements are seen, the greater the number of replies we are likely to receive. The Advertising Fund has now passed the first hundred pounds, and we sincerely thank all helpers. This month's list is :—

If you believe in Esperanto, will you not help us to spread the knowledge broadcast by supporting this effort to the best of your ability? You can do so either by sending a donation to the fund, or by having a book of 3d. tickets for disposal among your friends, or by entering for the competition on the next page. (Note, however, that owing to a legal decision, readers in Scotland cannot enter for this competition). We have reproduced one of the advertisements on page 70 for your information. Reprints of this may be obtained from the B.E.A. at 1/- per hundred, and are particularly suitable for enclosing in letters to friends.

Cadbury's Picture Stamp Albums. We understand that these albums, referred to on page 24, will be first publicly announced in The Teachers World, The Schoolmistress, and The Guide during the week ending March 25th. All Esperantists should obtain one of these albums, and afterwards congratulate Messrs. Cadbury Bros., Ltd., on their initiative. You will find details of how to obtain them on the wrappers of Cadbury's penny bars of chocolate.

AN INTERESTING COMPETITION.

TRY TO WIN A PRIZE

and at the same time

HELP THE ADVERTISING FUND.

Here is a simple competition, involving skill and judgment, giving an opportunity of winning a useful prize, and at the same time helping the fund for advertising Esperanto.

The names of twelve well-known seaside resorts are printed on this page. You are required to place opposite each one a number indicating, in your judgment, its relative popularity. For example, you might place after Hastings the figure 1, Brighton 2, and so on through the list.

A competitor may send as many entries as desired, but each must be accompanied by a postal order or stamps value 6d. There is room for four entries on this form, and extra forms may be obtained, free of charge, from the B.E.A. Office.

A Prize of £5 will be given to the competitor whose list most accurately tallies with the order of popularity as decided by the votes of the entrants. If there are more than 600 entries, a second prize of £2 10s. will be awarded.

Entries must be received by The British Esperanto Association, Inc., 142, High Holborn, London, W.C.1, not later than Saturday, April 22nd, 1933, and the result will be announced in the June issue of The British Esperantist.

Readers in Scotland are precluded from taking part in the Competition.

THE AEROPLANE OF LANGUAGE

WHY is it that with every distance-annihilating invention of man—wireless, aircraft, whatever it may be—man tries to retreat the more timidly behind his wholly artificial barriers of Nationalism? Why is the world so blind that it will not see where its salvation lies—in sane, co-operative international understanding?

There is a reason. We recognise it every time we switch on our wireless sets and set off for a trip round the world. We enjoy the music we hear. We enjoy the singers, the soloists—just because music is international, but when we pick up a talk we hasten to tune in some other station—because we can't understand it.

And because we can't understand the language, we can't understand the people. We do not know what they are saying and thinking. We do not grasp their point of view. More important, in a selfish way—they likewise do not understand us.

Hundreds of thousands of people in a hundred different countries of the world have decided that such a position is pitiful—and dangerous. They have joined together in a whole-hearted movement towards universal understanding.

They have done this by joining their national Esperanto Associations. The aims of these Esperanto Associations are very moderate, and very simple. Not to abolish national languages. Not to standardize speech throughout the world. Not to destroy national institutions and national heritages. But merely to provide an alternative language—a language which any two people anywhere in the world may use in speech or in writing, and thereby make themselves perfectly understood.

The result has been surprising—far more so, perhaps, than you know. If you are in favour of sane Internationalism, if you are convinced (as so many others are) that by that way alone does World Prosperity and Safety and Peace lie, then surely it is your duty to find out a little more about Esperanto, its achievements, its hopes. It is very simple to do this—just send your name and address, with 2d. in stamps, to the British Esperanto Association, Dept. L.A., 142, High Holborn, London, W.C.1. You will commit yourself to nothing—but your eyes will be opened to the aims of a live, moderate, and far-seeing movement.

Jen granda verko en kvin partoj. (I) Plibonigita formo de la konata Universala Esperantistigilo, kun klarigo pri la Esperanta alfabeto kaj traduko de la Korelativa Tabelo en 36 lingvoj, kaj 90 riĉe ilustritaj paĝoj da instruo rektmetoda. (II) 137-paĝa Krestomatio, kun pli ol 200 legaĵoj, kaj kurioza originala novelo kun 77 bildo. (III) Kvarkolumna Vortaro de 5,500 radikoj kun ilustraj frazoj kaj 8,000 bildo, kaj kun traduko de multe da vortoj en 40 lingvoj. (IV) Cent Listoj de Vortoj Samspecaj. Ekz., sub sono troviĝas listo de 64 sonoj diversaj. (V) Indekso al la enhavo de la tuta libro. Entute, la volumo enhavas 559 paĝojn dukolumnajn (16×23 cm.) kun 11,000 bildo.

Fari justan juĝon pri tia verkego estas tre malfacile. Gia granda amplekso mem malhelpas, ke oni ĉion vidu, kaj pli facile estus prijuĝi ĉiu parton kiel libron apartan. Efektive, pro la amaso da materialo prem-pakita en ĉiu paĝon—vera embaraso de riĉajo—la libro aspektas iom peza (eble ankaŭ pro literpeco iom malnovstila). Neniu, kiu konscias la vastan amplekson de la enhavo, kaj la grandegan elspezon da tempo, pacienco, kaj mono, kiun ĝia preparo nepre kostis, povas plendi pri la alta prezo.

Če Parto I oni rimarkas kelkajn verajn plibonigojn de la antaŭa Esperantistigilo, kiu estis mem unikaĵo. Ĉe la Vortara parto la difinoj ĝenerale estas bonaj; tamen ne senescepte. Ekzemple, la tradukoj de konsekvenca, aktuala, konvenci, estas eraraj, kaj de vera, vulgar, pedant ne tute kontentigaj. Troviĝas vortoj dube utilaj (ekz., georgino=dalio). Oni povas forte miri pri la apero kaj eĉ la bildigo de kelkaj aferoj, kiujn oni ordinare jugus nekonvenaj ekster libro medicina. Preseraroj estas malmultaj: notinda estas antaŭ ol anst. antaŭe (p. 230).

Fine oni povas demandi al si: Kion celas la libro? Por uzo en kursoj ĝi estas tro kosta. Eĉ la izolitan lernanton ĝi apenaŭ povus helpi tiel trafe, kiel lernolibro aŭ vortaro nacilingva. Eble la verko estus ne nur pli facile taksebla, sed ankaŭ pli utiligebla, se la kvar partoj estus vendebraj aparte, anstataŭ nur en unu volumego.

Čiuokaze, la libro estas verko monumenta, rimarkinda, kaj tre interesa, kiu meritas lokon en ĉiu grupa biblioteko, kaj en la propra biblioteko de ĉiu, kiu povas ĝin aĉeti.

Heroldo-Taschenwörterbuch.—131 pp. Ĉe Heroldo de Esperanto, Köln. Prezo 1.25 gmk. Esp-Germana kaj German-Esperanta poŝvortaro; klare presita, oportuna formato. Kun plenaj listoj de nomoj geografiaj kaj personaj, kaj interesa kaj utila enciklopedieto de la Esperanta movado.

Bedaŭrinde la vortaro multe tro facile enlasas vortojn senutilajn kaj dubindajn. Sangō, ekzemple, de fugo al fugeo, aŭ de vipuro al vipero, estas neakceptebla. Komuti kaj Salto, gracila kaj svelta, niti kaj vinkti, MET kaj CET, baraktas kune por ekzisto. Sajne oni celis kolekti multajn renkonteblajn formojn senkribe, lasante la lolon kaj la tritikon kreski kune. Tio utilas pli al la leganto de nia gazetaro, ol al la lernanto bezonanta gvidon. Malgraŭ la amaso da novaj vortoj, mankas hego!

A Key to Esperanto.—Nova eldono de la Angla "Slosilo." 32 pp., 1p. La gramatika resumo kaj vortareto restas sensanĝaj, sed estas pli klare presitaj; la cetera teksto estas reviziita.

Gvidlibro tra la Universitaturbo Tartu.—28-paĝa ilustrita gvidlibro, kun mapo, kaj statistiko kaj informo ankaŭ pri tutu Estonujo. Eldonita de Akademio Kooperativo, Tartu. Prezo ne montrita.

"Callender A.S. Magazine," Belvedere, Kent, has a 4-page supplement in or about Esperanto in each issue.

Congratulations to our member Hugh Nicol of Harpenden, on obtaining the degree Ph.D.

And of all the maidens kiujn I have seen, Oh !

Sen ia dabo I would much prefer

(Chorus)

A čarma little Esperantistino,

No matter what her country's name may be:

She's the one al kiu my affections lean, oh !

As a samideanino, don't you see ?

When in answer to my ardent Esperanto

Si respondas : "Jes, mi vere amas vin,"

I'm kun ŝi enamiĝinta,

And my heart is foririnta—

She's my sola, bela, tre aminda Queen !

I adore the girls of France—belegaj creatures !

So dainty and so graceful and so neat ;

And I love to gaze admire on the features

Of the German junulinoj, fair and sweet.

And the Spanish maid, whose blood pro amo bolas,

Ho, kiom multe mi adoras ŝin !

But if English ja neniom ŝi parolas,

And I ne povas kompreñigi min, . . . then (Chorus).

The oriental nymphs are tre entrancing,

From China aŭ Hindujo or Japan,

'Midst a whirl of diafanaj vestoj dancing,

Per la mano holding multkoloran fan.

And there's many a belulino most enchanting

In Madagascar kaj en Timbuctoo,

Sed ne estas only beauty that I'm wanting—

Precipe mi deziras unu who . . . is (Chorus).

INFANA RAKONTO

LA STRANGE-KOLORITA PRINCINO

(Fino)

Plenkreskis ankaŭ la paĝio — kaj riĉuliĝis. Unu tagon, li decidis reveni hejmen, ĉar li kredis ke neniu rekonos lin.

Pri la princino li estis tre malfeliĉa, do vizitis la reĝan kastelon kaj sin mem proponis kiel edzon.

"Via princina moŝto," li diris, "mi petas vian manon."

"Mi tre dankas vin," ŝi respondis, "sed rigardu! La mano estas ora."

"Ne tiel ora kiel koro."

"Kaj la okuloj estas ruĝetaj."

"Mi nur povas vidi la afablecon en ili."

"La hararo estas blua," flustris la princino.

"Ne tiel blua, kiel mi estos, se vi rifuzos min," diris la paĝio.

Tiam timeme respondis la princino, "Se la patro konsentos, mi ankaŭ," kaj manon ĉe mano, ili serĉis la reĝon.

"Ĉu vi havas monon?" demandis la reĝo, "ĉar mi ne intencas doni eĉ unu pencon al ĉi tiu malbelulino."

La junulo kapjesis; tiam, sin turnante al la princino, li diris, "Venu, mia kara amatino. Ne necesas plu resti." Kaj li enbrakigis ŝin, flustrante, "Ne timu."

"Ne koleru," diris la reĝo. "Mi nur volis vin provi. Ne volonte mi donus mian filinon al sentaŭgulo."

Baldaŭ tra la tuta lando eksonis sonoriloj, kaj la princino petis al la patro inviti la baptopatrinojn.

Dum ili trinkis je la sano de la gejunuloj, ekstaris la la kvara baptopatrino.

"Mia baptofilino," ŝi diris, "mi intermiksis la skatolojn, ĉar mi tre amas vin. Nun, ĉiuj amas vin, ĉar vi estas bonkorulino. Ili ne vidas la strangajn kolorojn, ĉar vi estas tre kara al ili, kaj plej bone amas vin la edzo. Nun, estu ĝuste kolorita."

Tuj vidigis la plej bela el belulinoj, princino kun ruĝeta haŭto, bluaj okuloj, kaj ora hararo.

Denove eksonis la sonoriloj, kaj tiun nokton oni eklumigis milojn da kandeloj kaj artaj fajraĵoj.

Čiam poste, feliĉe vivis la princino kaj ŝia edzo.

LINKS OF EMPIRE.

In these difficult days, the problem of obtaining the utmost value for the least possible expenditure has become of paramount importance. When one can not only save money, but at the same time help to forge the links which bind the British Empire into one economic unit, the proposition is at least worthy of careful attention.

By availing ourselves of the favourable exchange and the Imperial Preferential Tariff, we are in a position to supply one of the finest Ruby Port-Style Wines which are the legitimate pride of Australia. Under the mark of the already world-famous SYDNEY BRIDGE, this wine has attained widespread popularity and we offer it at the exceptionally attractive price of 36/- for 1 doz. bottles or 40/- for 2 doz. half-bottles, carriage paid home. Cash with order. Owing to the great demand, orders can be executed only in rotation, but those from Esperantists will receive the personal supervision of our principals.
